Re. The players behind Genetically Manipulated Organisms (GMO). Nano technology and the Codex Alimentarius.

I acknowledge receipt of your GMO Polish newsletter about "VOTE: WEB OPINION POLLS ON GMOs". Thank you. I use this opportunity to repeat that the Dutch have said no to GMOs. Only our queen Beatrix and the Crown Princess Maxima from Argentina said yes! <sup>1</sup> Moreover it seems that the players behind GMO are the Illuminati. That means invisible political powers like the European Royals <sup>2</sup> as I wrote in my letter to 'die Tageszeitung in Berlin' about the article 'Paris muss Genmais verteidigen' (TAZ 18/2/09). Please see my letter to the editor at the bottom of this message.

Six points of attention:

- 1) Patenting and centralisation of knowledge on food and agriculture means profit only for multinationals. There isn't a politician who is able to give one single argument why farmers, consumers and citizens should accept GMOs.
- 2) In other words, GMO only means bundling (fascies) of new knowledge on food and agriculture;
- 3) in other words, knowledge only in the hands of the great shareholders of Monsanto and other multinationals cum suis, means on balance, a new kind of fascism, the worst in this field.
- 4) Who stands behind USA's President Obama? Why is Obama in a hurry to send an additional 17.000 soldiers to Afghanistan? What are the Universities plant researchers doing in Afghanistan? See: 'Feasibility study on opium Licensing in Afghanistan. For the production of morphine and other essential medicines' http://www.csdp.org/research/feasibility\_study.pdf
- 5) What or who is the Codex Alimentarius? See: http://www.laleva.org/eng/2009/02/breaking\_the\_uns\_code\_x.html Why are European citizens by the European leaders not really informed about the Codex Alimentarius? See: http://www.codexalimentarius.net/web/index\_en.jsp Why didn't inform the former Assistant Director-General of FAO (Agriculture Department), Louise Fresco until now the Dutch people about the Codex Alimentarius? ftp://ftp.fao.org/codex/ccmas24/ma02\_09e.pdf
- 6) Who is José Manuel Barroso, really? <sup>3</sup> Is he introducing GMOs in the European culture, in the European politic and in the environment on non arguments? Sorry for him and his Illuminati. Firstly, they would have to change the ideal of free human beings into the ideal of free multinationals. As every body knows the European Convention on Human Rights (ECHR) is protecting human beings against Illuminati and GMO's. Please see the articles 1, 5 and 8. The International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (ICESCR) is protecting the European culture and social rights. The International covenant on civil and political rights (ICCPR) is protecting the democratic rights and obligations. Why, then, GMOs, while you can't find any citizen who votes for GMO? Why were the elections in the Netherlands in 2006 'stolen' <sup>4</sup> as the Algemeen Dagblad for the first time wrote in the article 'Lijst 14 eist geld terug' <sup>5</sup> published on 21st of January 2009? 'Without political room freedom is impossible' Hannah Arendt. http://www.ad.nl/rotterdam/stad/2935743/Lijst\_14\_eist\_geld\_terug\_na\_mislukte\_verkiezing.html

What is our goal?

Our common goal and interest is to protect the search of our livelihood and save the earth from GMO and other unwanted poison stuff <sup>6</sup>. In other words we have to protect fundamentally our basic comfort <sup>7</sup> which means our possessions and our right on the integrity of the human body. In my opinion we have only to do two things:

- a) Please let's we make the invisible political power visible! We can do that by pointing our fingers at the European Royals. They are still the invisible political powers, the Illuminati's of the Western World, especially in the Netherlands. Ask them, why GMOs? Tell them across the heads of the politician that we don't want it!
- b) Please let us ask the political institute of Christianity <sup>8</sup>, the Pope in Rome and other political leaders of the church to change the symbolic sign of the crucifix <sup>9</sup> into a symbolic sign of the earth. For many people is the status of God equal to the earth and the nature.

We specially ask you: please don't point the finger at the Islam as Geert Wilders is allowed to do in the democratic Kingdom of the Netherlands. See enclosed pdf Wilders of his Hudson Institute speech in New York, included the open letter from the Revolutionary Party Netherland tot the former VN secretary Kofi Annan of 31st Augustus 2008. Please don't call a citizen a terrorist when he wants to protect their properties. (See article 1. ECHR) Please don't call a citizen a terrorist when he wants to protect his right to the integrity of his body. (See article 8. ECHR) Please don't call a citizen a terrorist when he wants to be free and decide in his own criteria about safety and a healthy life (See article 5. ECHR) Please don't call a citizens terrorists when they wants to protect their culture and their political rights and values following the international covenants, ICESCR and ICCPR

Please circulate this letter widely and let all politicians know that they are paid monthly by citizens and that they can't find enough citizens who want GMOs. I remain with kind regards. Your servant to serve the general interest*.

<sup>4</sup> A young brave journalist, Marlies van Leeuwen was able to pass the censure of the editor in chief of the Algemeen Dagblad and made known on 21st January 2009, for the first time, that the elections of 22 November 2006 in the Netherlands were 'stolen'.

<sup>5</sup> History: www.lijst14.nl : The former list 14 was a Blanco list with 17 candidate representatives of the people, a political movement created by alarmed citizens. That means no name above the list; so we refer to this political manoeuvre as a Blanco list. With 17 candidates they joined the elections of November 22, 2006. It was unique in Dutch parliamentary history. Initiator and coordinator was Robert A. Verlinden, candidate number 17 of www.lijst14.nl. Despite of this fact, the independent media didn't write about this unique political movement and didn't write about the individual candidates. At the very last moment, three weeks before the election on the November 1st, 2006 the government informed the initiator and coordinator of List 14 that they wouldn't get political commercials on Radio and TV because of certain unknown rules of the Media law. This law said that only political parties who are registered as an association in the register of the Kiesraad receive the right for political commercials, free of charge. List 14 was not an association but a Blanco list with independent candidates. After getting, only by arguments, the obliged support in the 19 election districts, as an unknown movement and after paying a caution fee of euro 11.250, the official election institute, the Kiesraad, registered this Blanco list as number 14. Coincidence or not, but number 14 is the same number as the famous shirt number of the world-famous football player Johan Crujff.

Nobody included under the civil servants of the Kiesraad was informed, previously, about these, in our view, discriminating Media rules. Just two days later on the 3rd of November 2006, the former minister Nicolai decided to make the election with distance voting possible. Of course he did know that every citizen has the right to object to these ministerial decisions within 6 weeks. That did happen. Only de Raad van State, the private court of the queen, didn't agree with the arguments and said "no". Court case number Raad van State: 200608427/1/H2. The computers prepared for distance voting, as they said, registered for 'Lijst 14' only 2181 votes. Citizens in Leeuwarden in the North of the Netherlands couldn't believe that and wanted to check and to see the formal voting list (processen-verbaal). They then heard that this was not possible because the voting list had passed already. That means that within three days after election: the shredding machine. Now, more than two years later, the coordinator of Lijst 14 is standing for the Raad van State and wants minimally a full restitution of the caution. Court case Raad van State number: 200804861/1/H2. Information: A.A.E. Jansen, tel. 0031 70 4264365. Owed to the courage of the brave journalist Marlies van Leeuwen everybody in Europe and the world can see and convince themselves by asking questions that the election in the Netherlands at 22 November 2006 were 'stolen'. That means that it is proven that in the democratic Kingdom of the Netherlands there is no political room for citizens. This is contrary to The International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (ICCPR). Information number Kiesraad: 0031 70 4266266 Mrs. Mr. Hoorweg, reference number: 2007- 0000048803.
